NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, 6th Floor, 14 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. 02108.

All missionary money being sent through the Conference should be made payable to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ and sent to: Attention of Mr. Ralph F. Tuller, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 02108.

Unless requested otherwise, these contributions, beyond the sum the Conference retains for its own work (from undesignated money), are sent on to the Treasurer of the United Church of Christ in New York, where they are divided among the Boards and Instrumentalities according to the agreed upon percentages.

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit monthly such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston 02108.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference a sum as Fellowship dues equivalent to $1.50 for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1972 (for 1973 it will be $2.00), and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to the Conference Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston 02108.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured for One Dollar, upon application to the Registrar, 14 Beacon St., Boston 02108. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

The National Year Book is available to church clerks and retired ministers upon request to the United Church of Christ, 297 Park Avenue South, New York City 10010.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Massachusetts Missionary Society was organized on May 29, 1799, in Boston. There were thirty-eight charter members, mainly followers of the theology of Samuel Hopkins. They were "impelled by a deep commiseration for the unhappy state of those who were perishing for lack of those precious means of salvation which we enjoy." Their intention was to spread "the knowledge of the glorious Gospel of Christ among the poor Heathens and in those remote parts of our country in which the inhabitants had not enjoyed the benefits of a Christian ministry and Christian ordinances," i.e., outside Massachusetts. Nathaniel Emmons, fifty-four years pastor at Franklin, was the first president. The Society was incorporated in 1808.

Origin of Massachusetts Home Missionary Society

In 1827 the Massachusetts Missionary Society and the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper (which had come into being in 1818 to "see every parish in the State well supplied with a faithful Minister of Christ"), were united under the name of the Massachusetts Missionary Society. This meant that while the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper lost its name, the Massachusetts Missionary Society was henceforth to work almost exclusively in Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Missionary Society became the Massachusetts "Home" Missionary Society in 1844. This was simply to emphasize that the work of the Society had become exclusively for America and for the Massachusetts part of America.

Origin of Massachusetts Conference

The General Association of Massachusetts came into being in 1802. This ultimately became the Massachusetts Congregational Conference. The Conference then merged with the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society in 1927, to become the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. This was the result of twenty-seven years' agitation, accelerated by a recommendation of the National Council in 1907. The charter of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society was used as the basis for the union of the two organizations. In 1953 the name was changed to Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference. In 1966 the name was changed again to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ. The Conference assumes responsibility for all Congregational missionary work done in Massachusetts. It supports a staff of fifteen persons who give ministerial and executive leadership to a broad program of work designed to help the churches, to develop the fellowship of the ministers and churches, and to cultivate practical support for denominational and inter-denominational projects and programs.

The Fall Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ was called to order by the Moderator, Mr. James Bateman, at 9:45 a.m. on Saturday, November 13, 1971, at the Brockton High School, Brockton, Massachusetts. The Moderator appointed the following people to the Credentials Committee: Rev. Arlan A. Baillie, chairman, Mrs. Ruth Anna Bowler, Rev. Robert P. Noble, Jr.

Upon hearing a preliminary report of the Credentials Committee on registration, the Moderator declared that a quorum was present.

The Ground Rules, as printed in the 1971 Conference Yearbook and as circulated prior to this meeting, were read. It was moved and VOTED: That the Meeting adopt the Ground Rules as read and circulated.

The Moderator introduced Mr. Hugh Jones, of the firm of Hale and Dorr, as Parliamentarian for the Meeting. The following committees were appointed by the Moderator:

The Moderator introduced the Rev. Francis X. Pirazzini, Minister of the Central Atlantic Conference of the United Church of Christ, on sabbatical leave and teaching at Andover Newton Theological School. It was moved and VOTED: That the Rev. Francis X. Pirazzini be made an Honorary Member of the Conference at this Meeting.

It was moved and

VOTED: To accept the Agenda as printed.

It was moved and

VOTED: To waive the reading of the minutes of the last Conference Meeting and to approve them as printed and distributed.

The Moderator announced that the proceedings of the day are being taped and that it might be possible to produce a cassette or other recording for distribution. Mrs. Phyllis Baldwin was introduced and she spoke briefly about the United Church Herald.

The Rev. Dr. Gabriel Fackre of Andover Newton Theological School conducted the Worship Service, assisted by "The Decisions" from the Edwards Congregational Church, Framingham.

The Moderator introduced the Chairman of the Board of Directors, Dr. Wade M. Kornegay. Dr. Kornegay gave some of the budget background and then introduced the Rev. William Hulteen, Chairman of the Priorities Committee of the Board; the Rev. Robert Dennett, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Board; and Mr. Ralph F. Tuller, Treasurer of the Conference. Each of these men spoke briefly. It was pointed out that, according to the Bylaws, the action of the Meeting cannot increase the budget beyond the total proposed and that no new item may be added. It is possible to move amounts around within the total and also to decrease the total budget. The Rev. Paul Clayton, Chairman of the Personnel Committee of the Board, listed the following Executive salaries for the Conference:

Avery Post	$25,000
Donald Simpson	15,000
Karl Phillippi	15,000
James Lancaster	15,000
Paul Sinn	14,500
Oliver Powell	15,000
Emil Beck	16,250
George Thomas	16,500
Darrell Holland	14,100
Dexter Rice	10,550	(receives rent free home)
Pierre Vuilleumier	11,400	(receives some room and board)
Consultant in Education	14,000

The Meeting was then divided into small groups for discussion on the Budget, followed by lunch.

The Moderator reconvened the Meeting at 2:05 p.m. The Rev. Boardman Kathan presented a Certificate of Merit to Miss Valerie Bryan for her outstanding service to the Conference.

It was moved and

VOTED: To adopt the 1972 Conference Budget as proposed and circulated.

An amendment to increase the contingency Fund for Churches by $5000 and to decrease the grant to the Massachusetts Council of Churches by the same amount was lost.

The Rev. Norman Dubie read the following statement from the Board of Directors of the Greater Lawrence Ecumenical Area Ministry:

During the past three years, the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ has made available to the Greater Lawrence Ecumenical Area Ministry (GLEAM) the sum of $12,000 per year for the establishing of an inner city ministry in Lawrence. The Board of Directors of GLEAM recognizes that the steady growth and effectiveness of that ministry has been made possible in very large measure by this early and generous funding, and wishes to express its deepest gratitude to the Conference, and to all who contributed to GLEAM indirectly through their support of MISSION: ADVANCE!

The ministry of GLEAM is now fully ecumenical, supported by four Roman Catholic churches, by a Jewish synagogue, by 21 local churches, by five denominations, by five industries, and by two banks. Its basic ministry is to low-income families, especially to those of the Spanish American population which now numbers some 10,000 in Lawrence, the number increasing steadily by some 100 persons per month. Through the program which the Massachusetts Conference has helped to make possible in the past three years, 80 adult tutors and 20 high school students from communities surrounding Lawrence have gone regularly into Spanish American homes in the city to teach English and to be a counselor to the families in their cultural adjustments (many others are still waiting for tutors); a licensed Day Care Center operates at an annual budget of $95,000. to care for 30 children of former welfare mothers, permitting the mothers to be either gainfully employed or to enter employment training programs; a seven-unit apartment building in the center of the inner city has been completely renovated to provide a model for self-sustaining, low-income housing in the city of Lawrence, and has prepared the way for the future renovation of 30-50 additional units, also to be used as genuinely low-income rentals; a program of community organization has operated continuously, providing for coordination of Spanish American organizations, for counsel on the legal rights of tenants, for voter registration, and for many other services. At the present time, seven students from seminaries comprising the Boston Theological Institute are doing their field work through GLEAM, directing recreational programs, assisting in problems of housing, and working with problems of unemployment. The money which the Massachusetts Conference has made available to GLEAM has helped to release nearly $100,000 in state and local funds for some of the programs mentioned here.

However, the present MISSION: ADVANCE! funding of GLEAM will terminate in February 1972 and the Board of Directors of GLEAM understands that the program is not included in the grants budget of the conference for the coming year. GLEAM has anticipated a reduced support from its most generous source of funding through the past three years, but is not yet able to "go" entirely "on its own." Hence, local churches and individuals familiar with the ministry of GLEAM have, as of this moment, committed themselves to contribute $2700 of "new" money (money not designated for other purposes) to GLEAM in 1972, and additional amounts are expected to be raised through local churches of the area, especially through campaigns to renew MISSION: ADVANCE! pledges, designating that the money be sent to GLEAM. Such monies will enable GLEAM to continue its ministry without curtailment.

It is the concern of the Board of Directors of GLEAM that all groups ecumenically involved in the ministry be assured of the continuing support of the Massachusetts Conference. The acceptance of this statement for inclusion in the minutes of this meeting will be taken for such support. The Board of Directors of GLEAM also respectfully requests that the Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Conference seriously consider the funding of GLEAM in the grants budget for 1973.

Since there was a misunderstanding about the intent of the motion to adopt the budget, it was moved and

VOTED: To reconsider the Budget for 1972.

Concern was expressed that there was no direct reflection in the budget of the Peace Priority of the Conference. An amendment to use the Grants Contingency Fund for the Peace Priority was defeated. Yes, 198; No, 280. Therefore, it was moved and VOTED: That the Board of Directors report at the Annual Meeting in May 1972, recommendations to implement the Peace Priority.

It was moved and

VOTED: To adopt the 1972 budget for the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ as proposed, circulated and attached.

It was moved and

VOTED: That the Fellowship Dues be established at $1.50 per member for 1972. An amendment to increase the dues to $1.75 was defeated.

It was moved and

VOTED: That the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ retain 20% of the OCWM funds given for Basic Support in 1972.

The Rev. Arlan Baillie, Chairman of the Credentials Committee, presented the following report of those in attendance:

Clergy	181
Directors of Christian Education	3
Ex-Officio	42
Guests	57
TOTAL	640

There were 75 advance registrants who did not attend, consisting of:

Clergy	24
Lay	39
Ex-Officio	2
Guests	10

It was moved and

VOTED: That the report of the Credentials Committee be accepted.

The Rev. Allen Hollis spoke briefly about the Parsonage Equity Fund, urging Churches and Ministers to enroll.

The Moderator then introduced the Rev. Avery Post, Minister and President of the Conference. Mr. Post pointed out: The delegates assembled exercised voting privilege and voting power. The Meeting today has done the Church institution's business. The business that has taken place is not binding on the member Churches. The Church is a meeting of the people of God to diffuse the message of Jesus Christ. As Churches, we must look at the quality of our covenant relationship. The Conference has a role to play in relation to the Churches, particularly in the area of trust. We must work toward becoming a mature Conference in the United Church of Christ as we make our plans in relation to other conferences and instrumentalities.

Miss Winifred Eastwood, Chairman of the Business Committee, presented the following resolution which was moved and VOTED: Be it resolved that the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ meeting on November 13, 1971 expresses its thanks to the City of Brockton and especially its School Committee; host Churches: First Parish, Porter, South, Lincoln, Waldo, Union of East Bridgewater, First of Stoughton; and to the Pilgrim Association for the hospitality of this day.

Also, our thanks to Professor Gabriel Fackre for his enrichment of our morning worship; also praise to the Rev. Emil Beck and others for the efficient organization of this Conference Meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:20 p.m.

MINUTES OF THE 173rd ANNUAL MEETING of the
MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
May 5 - 6, 1972, Pittsfield, Massachusetts

The 173rd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ was called to order by the Moderator, Mr. James Bateman, at 10:35 A.M. on Friday, May 5, 1972, at the First United Methodist Church, Pittsfield, Massachusetts. (Registration was held in First Church of Christ, Congregational, U. C. C.) The Rev. Robert D. Witham assisted by the Rev. Peter Hayn led the group in singing preceding the Meeting. VOTED: That these guests be elected Honorary Delegates for this Meeting, with voice, but no vote.

The Meeting was recessed for lunch.

The Moderator reconvened the meeting at 2:30 P. M., following remarks by Mr. William Cox. Mrs. Barbara McCall spoke briefly to the Meeting. She is working with a Task Force on Women in the United Church of Christ. Mrs. Phyllis Baldwin spoke about the "United Church Herald." Dr. Wade Kornegay presented the following Report of the Board of Directors:

> Rather than present a lengthy report that covers essentially all of the activities and actions of the Board of Directors for the past year, I will focus this report on two critical issues. In addition, I will call on a member of the Church and Mission Committee (the Rev. Bricker Gibson) and a member of the Board of Directors (the Rev. William Hulteen) to report on responses to action called for by the previous Annual Meetings.
> The primary issue has to do with priorities. The Board is struggling to define a clear policy for leading the Conference in addressing priorities on a wholistic basis. We have taken initial steps to lead the Conference in taking priorities and the prioritizing process with utmost seriousness. We have identified the functional and emerging priorities of the Conference and have sought to focus program development and budget building to reflect these priorities.
> Under the able leadership of Bill Hulteen, the Priorities Committee, one of the three sub-committees of the Board, has performed admirably in helping the Board to begin to develop a methodology for priority programming and funding. The role of the Committee has been defined more clearly. It has the responsibility to: 1) lift up and define to the Board what the current functional priorities of the Conference are; 2) identify for the Board major emerging priorities; 3) inform the Board on what the Conference, through its Board of Directors, officers, staff and Committees and Councils, is doing to deliver on its priorities; 4) help the Board phase in and phase out priorities over time; and 5) develop a methodology for intermediate and long-range planning. It should be said that the Ad Hoc Policy Committee has the responsibility for planning and correlating for effective delivery on priorities.

Support of local churches in their mission, support of professional leadership, empowerment of the Black, poor and disenfranchised and Peace have been identified as the current major functional priorities of the Conference. Through the Finance and Priorities Committees, the Board will continue to raise questions about how programs are planned, how our human resources are used and how money is spent in light of these priorities.

In a time of identifying priorities we recognize the need to develop a strategy for testing priorities and for phasing in and out of priorities. As a step in that direction, a data gathering process for the determination and testing of priorities using inputs from the constituency is being planned for this year. Unfortunately, the process will not be completed in time for input toward 1973 program and budget building, but will be useful for future planning. The Board seeks to arrange the affairs of the Conference such that it can follow the logical sequence of moving from priority identification and testing, through program development to budget building. (As a positive move in that direction, tomorrow the Board will present a recommendation for a By-law change that will allow the Conference to set the Fellowship Dues and O.C.W.M. retention rate at the Annual Meeting rather than the Fall Meeting.) The painful truth is that the pressure of time does not permit an easy and orderly transition to this desired mode of operation which is the inverse of the one followed until recently. Nevertheless, I am convinced that by this time next year, we will be well along in the process of getting our priorities, programs and budget cycle ordered properly.

The second key issue with which the Board is grappling is that of inter-relationships and the overall role and function of the various Conference units (the Board, officers, staff, local churches, Conference Meeting and Committees and Councils). A fresh look at inter-relationships is being made within the context of a Conference life style that is centered around priorities. It will continue to be difficult for the Board to give effective leadership to the Conference in priority programming and servicing so long as the issue of inter-relationships and role definition is unresolved. The re-assessment of the structure of the Board that is now underway will probably provide the key for addressing this issue. (If a new Board structure is needed, we will probably achieve it by evolution, not by a radical restructuring.) Considering the confidence I have in you and the churches of this Conference and the quality of the dedicated women and men who serve on the Board of Directors, I feel confident that our struggles in addressing priorities, inter-relationships and other emerging issues can be turned into victories for the whole church. (End of Director's Report)

The Rev. William Hulteen reported recommendations for implementing the Peace Priority. There is much over-lapping, so that the funding will be through committees of the Conference, the Staff and OCWM. Money supports people and programs that take action. Peace Action teams will be established to keep the issue alive.

The Rev. Bricker Gibson reported for the Task Force on Long Range Stewardship. He listed several places where Churches may receive help: The Stewardship Council regional office, Church-Fund-Raising workshops for clusters of Churches, the Conference Staff, Stewardship Council materials, programs of missionary visitation, the "Pilgrim State News" and the "United Church Herald", Church and Mission Committee of the Conference and the associations. Church-Fund-Raising has been retained as a consultant in 1972. The Task Force should be restructured with laymen from business. An effective program will require a full-time Staff member.

The Treasurer, Mr. Ralph Tuller, gave his report. It was moved and VOTED: That the Report of the Treasurer and the Auditors' Report be accepted.

The Rev. Dewey Peterson reviewed the proposals of the Business Committee (listed above) and recommended that they be adopted with the change that the resolution of Mr. Paul Ross be put on the agenda for the Fall Meeting. It was moved and VOTED: That the proposals of the Business Committee be supported as presented.

An amendment to consider the motion of Paul Ross at this Meeting was lost. Yes 234; no 293.

The Rev. Nevin Kirk reported that the Church and Leadership Committee had received no new nominations. Therefore, it was moved and VOTED: That nominations be closed.

The Rev. Kenneth Claus spoke about the ad hoc committee on worship.

The Meeting broke up into two groups to listen to presentations by Public Concern Groups: Task Force on Southern Africa Resolution, and the Church and Community Resolution. After 45 minutes, delegates switched groups.

Following dinner, a program "The Way the Lord Wanted It: Propers for the Day" was presented by the National Center of Afro-American Artists, Elma Lewis School of Fine Arts.

Saturday, May 6, 1972

The Moderator called the Meeting to order at 9:30 A. M. Singing, led by the Rev. A. Karl Phillippi, preceded the Meeting. The Rev. Paul Sinn led the opening worship.

The Business Committee presented a recommendation for a 10 minute rebuttal from the Southern Africa Task Force and for some changes in time for the lunch period. It was moved and VOTED: To amend the recommendation of the Business Committee by deleting the 10 minute rebuttal from the Task Force on Southern Africa.

Following this, it was moved and VOTED: To adjourn for lunch at 12:15 P. M. and reconvene at 2:00 P. M.

The Moderator introduced the candidates for Officers and Executive Officers of the Conference. It was moved and

VOTED: That the Secretary cast one ballot for the election of the Officers, Executive Officers, members of the Board of Directors and members of the Conference Committees and Councils. (A complete list of Officers, Executive Officers, Boards, Committees and Councils is printed in another section of the Conference Year Book.)

Mr. Post read the names of those ministers celebrating the 50th anniversary of their ordination: Rev. Frederick C. Wilson, East Northfield, Rev. Frank C. Seymour, Burlington, Vermont, Rev. Richard L. Bailey, New Bedford, and Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan, Newtonville. Mr. Wilson and Mr. Callahan were present and were recognized by the Meeting.

Mr. Post then read the names of the ordinands of the past year. (This list is printed in another section of the Conference Year Book)

Mr. Post gave a report as the Minister and President of the Conference discussing:

— the status of the Consultation on Church Union in the light of a recent statement by the Executive Council of the United Church of Christ.

— a suggested reorganization and relocation of the Council of Christian Social Action.

— the status of the implementation of the General Synod commitment to raise supporting funds for the six black colleges related to the American Missionary Association and certain overseas ministries.

— the need to complete pledge commitments to Mission: Advance!

— the serious need of the whole church for new funds to support mission projects as well as continuing service to congregations and ministers.

— a concern that the churches be open to the leadership of thousands of concerned and theologically sensitive young people.

And that the same Article IV, Section 1, lines 11 to 14 have the above italicized deleted.

The Rev. Robert Dennett, Chairman of the Finance Committee, presented a recommendation from the Board of Directors for Fellowship Dues. It was moved and VOTED: That we wholeheartedly endorse the resolution on Southern Africa adopted with the support of the Massachusetts delegation at the Eighth General Synod on June 28, 1971, and we resolve to implement its principles in the following ways:

(1) That a Task Force will be formed to study and make recommendations on the problems of freedom and justice in Southern Africa and Guinea-Bissau. All concerned members of U.C.C. churches in Massachusetts who wish to share in the work of the Task Force may become members. The Task Force will determine its own organizational structure. It will be responsible to and report its findings and recommendations to the next annual Conference Meeting and in the interim be responsible to the Board of Directors of the Conference. The Task Force will work with the Church and Community Committee when joint action is desired. The assignment of the Task Force shall be:

(a) To develop criteria for confronting and eliminating our complicity in racism in Southern Africa that results from ownership of stock in companies whose business supports white government domination and oppression of black Africans. Stock held by Conference endowment funds and the Congregational Fund shall be considered for examination.

(b) To recommend that the trustees charged with supervising such stockholdings use their proxy power to support the efforts of groups challenging the policies of corporations doing business in Southern Africa: It is the intent of this resolution that the Task Force shall develop recommendations concerning the use of proxy power and it is the further intent that the Board of Directors shall urge the trustees of the Funds, and any other funds acting as endowments, to follow such recommendations as the Board of Directors present.

(c) To investigate broadening the use of restricted endowment funds in order to rechannel some of them into African liberation movements.

(d) To recommend to the next annual meeting additional forms of challenging corporations doing business in Southern Africa, such as sponsoring resolutions at stockholders' meetings, or divestiture of the offending stock and reinvestment in more socially responsible companies.

(e) To educate local church members on the nature of American political and economic support of white dominated regimes in Africa, and encourage them to examine the stock held by their own churches.

(2) (Numbered 3 in original motion) Recommend that a programmed budget item for the use of the Task Force be included in the Conference budget at the fall meeting to pay for the necessary expenses of the Task Force.

It was moved and

VOTED: That the following section 2 of the original motion be referred to the Finance Committee of the Board of Directors.

The Conference will secure funds earmarked for the World Council of Churches Fund to Combat Racism, in order to aid the movements for liberation of Southern Africa and Guinea-Bissau, by directing that 5% of OCWM receipts be sent through the Board of World Ministries to the World Council of Churches. In addition, the Board of Directors of the Conference and the new Task Force shall create a special fund to raise additional money through individual giving directed for the Fund to Combat Racism.

A motion to table section 4 of the Resolution on Southern Africa and Guinea-Bissau was lost, as was the motion on section 4, which asked that we encourage "the boycott of the use of all Gulf Oil Company products until the company withdraws its heavy investment in Southern African white domination." Yes 241; no 270.

Several motions were made and defeated: That the Meeting be extended to 5:45; that all the remaining resolutions except those dealing with hospitality be postponed to the Fall Meeting; that we consider the peace resolution, but postpone the ones on anti-personnel weapons and investments; that the Meeting be adjourned. A substitution for Section B of the Church and Community resolutions, with the concurrence of the Committee, was submitted by the Rev. Arthur Teikmanis from one of the process groups. Copies were distributed. An amendment seeking to delete the last three lines (requesting "the Honeywell Corporation to cease and desist the manufacture of anti-personnel weapons") was lost. It was moved and VOTED: BE IT RESOLVED: That a Task Force of concerned members of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ be appointed by the Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ for the purpose of communicating to appropriate government agencies and officials our alarm and opposition to our government's request for the production of anti-personnel weapons.

These resolutions are initiated not only in a quest for peace in the human family but also for the soul of our people.

SERMON AT THE 173RD ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST IN PITTSFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS MAY 5, 1972

By the Rev. Avery D. Post
Conference Minister and President
Text: Isaiah 21:1-12

Although the two oracles in Isaiah are very old, their tones set off deep vibrations in us. The oracle of the wilderness of the sea tells the story of a time of threat and terror in Isaiah's time, but in the strange way of the Bible, it tells our story too. And our own voices are somehow in the oracle concerning Dumah, as the cry from Seir, from the people of the world, rises in the almost ultimate crescendo of anguish and hope, "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?"

The metaphors of terror and threat and danger are all there in the first oracle: whirlwinds sweeping on from the mysterious desert, the plunderer plundering and the destroyer destroying, the seige, loins filled with anguish, pangs that seize like the travail of a woman, persons bent and bowed so they cannot hear, others dismayed so they cannot see, people threshed and winnowed, and finally — "My mind reels, horror has appalled me; the twilight I longed for has been turned for me into trembling."

That is the kind of collision of language and reality which at one level makes the Bible a literary masterpiece, and at another level makes the Bible live now for us with soul and power.

Into that setting in an old time and now in this time, there comes a figure that we always regret we have forgotten whenever he appears again. An outmoded vocation and profession in the contemporary world, the watchman upon the tower becomes eyes and ears for a city, the public announcer of changes occurring in the world round about, a voice warning of peril:

> "Go set a watchman, let him announce what he sees. When he sees riders, horsemen in pairs, riders on asses, riders on camels, let him listen diligently, very diligently."
> 'Upon a watchtower I stand, O Lord, continually by day, and at my post I am stationed whole nights. And behold, here come riders, horsemen in pairs!'

A trusted one, standing watch above his own city, crying of danger, taking care of a people! As the watchman takes care, he has conversations with people about matters of life and death — "Is it safe? Is the way clear? Is the storm coming this way? How long will the sun be up? Are they friends or foes?" It is the watchman who receives the question of questions: "What of the night? What of the night?" And the answer that comes then and now is both definitive and elusive, comforting and alerting, firm and tender: "Morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire; come back again."

Different figures of speech for the Church appeal at different times. I commend to you today the figure of the watchman — the Church called to be a people who warn of danger, who cry out in the face of aggression and violence, and above all who are there to receive the anguished, even terror-stricken, question: "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?"

I hear it said these days — often in churches — that people do not have dark and desperate questions on their lips anymore, that the preoccupation with night has now thankfully passed, and that we have come at last to a happier, easier, less frenzied and frenetic time. But I don't believe it. Just below the surface, and mostly above the surface in vacant eyes and tight faces, in telltale body language, and in clipped anxiety-driven words, there are desperate questions about the night. "What of the night?"

We can be fooled, and the church itself has been fooled by these giddy times. It troubles me that we may have come again to a time of comfortable piety in the churches when, in the name of personal religion, we begin to check our troubles at the door without conscience and soothe ourselves with the special religious oils of gladness. Perhaps even attendance is improving under such happy circumstances. But where such smiling self-satisfaction abounds in the churches, I wonder about those who are asking, "What of the night?", and I wonder if the churches are not beginning again to sleep on the watch.

But the problem of sleep and sleepiness is even more pervasive and alarming than that! If I wanted to control a society, I would drug it with affluence, and cause it to live in the never-never haze of indifference and apathy. I would ask people to flex the muscles of their built-in virtue and righteousness, and bid them "beddy-bye" with the assurance that all will be well and that peace will be maintained with honor. I would use the wires of technology to make a soap opera serial out of people's lives, and I would plan and control the news and events and even pseudo-events all for the sake of quiet in the breast and a comfortable drowsiness in the eyes. I would press among the people the social program of bread and circuses — but not the real circuses where clowns make us laugh so deeply that we begin to cry! Is it an unsavory sensitivity in me, or is it true, and you will confirm it, that we are being put to sleep by manipulation, that we are being charmed and exploited by planned scenarios (some of them of the good-guys/bad-guys variety about which we ought to know better), that we are already being drawn to live beyond freedom and dignity in a massive control of our social behavior, our moods and our trains of thought?

To check any self-serving paranoia that might develop because of such remarks, may I remind every one of us that these drugs would not be working if we were not taking them, even welcoming them to give us the haze, the dimness, and dullness, and the distance that we want and choose.

As I move about among my colleagues in the ministry, I am struck by the number who say that their ministry is often just to be "there," perhaps without words or other actions. Of course! It is the ministry of standing watch — a wakefulness, an attentiveness for the sake of persons that is the most modest kind of hint of what God does who stands within the shadows keeping watch above his own. Watching is a kind of body-praying, helping and upholding through one's presence. Sleeping is one of our gravest temptations. Remember?

> Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I go yonder and pray." And taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be sorrowful and troubled. Then he said to them, "My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here and watch with me." And going a little further he fell on his face and prayed, "Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt." And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping; and he said to Peter, "So could you not watch with me one hour?"

One of the chief tasks of the Church in our time is to be awake and "there" for those who are suffering in the night and of the night. The Church is called to a kind of insomnia, to discipline an unsleeping attention to the world as the monastic orders did so rigorously in the past and even in some places today, to watch with this endangered world, to see with studiousness and scholarship and with caring eyes the damnation that is being wrought everywhere against persons and nature, and above all to stay awake for questions of the night!

Those questions are there. What of the night of our savagery and retaliation and self-interest in the war in Southeast Asia? How long that night — my God how long? What of the night of oppression and injustice in which poor people live all over this world and especially in our own country? What of the night of racism, so easily gathering rhetoric in the churches, but persistent and demonic, and lethal? How long the night of violence in our land, not only of those whose angers have exploded because of injustice, but especially the violence of the genteel like us, whose controlled rage is meted out in cold and systematic exclusions and discriminations? Is it not a long and horrible night in the life of this nation that we have militarized to the point at which the United States has become an economy that thrives on the manufacture of weapons, that we have expanded our influence to the point at which the United States has been called a veritable empire, that we have hardened the lines to the point at which civil liberties and rights of privacy are being chipped away, that we have reached the point at which the demands of our ambitious nationhood tempt us to the suppression of the truth?

"Watchman, tell us of the night? What of the night?" God help us if the church is not "there" to receive those terrible, grief-stricken, desperate questions! In the profoundest sense, keeping watch over the world by night is one of the ways that we join Jesus Christ in His passion and victory.

The watchman's word to the questioner is hopeful and honest. The Church, whether the preacher in the pulpit or the lay person in the world of family or work of political action or leisure, is called to give the hopeful word and the honest word. You heard it from the watchman, "Morning comes, and also the night."

Preaching is announcement — far more announcement than analysis. And at root Christian theology is a theology of proclamation of good news about the morning — and the night.

How some of us long to hear the morning word, but what we hear from every side is gloom — even gloom from the pulpit that rises above the Table of the Eucharist where we celebrate the fact that the redemptive agony of the Christ of God in the world is ultimately victorious. Perhaps more than ever before the despairing world about us, hardly buttressed by the flimsy optimisms of this age, needs the movement and the style and the languages and the faces and the hope of the morning people of God. I don't mean that cheaply, nor am I particularly encouraged that there are many who will answer the call to be disciples and evangelists in this extraordinary sense — announcers of hope and trumpeters of the reality of the resurrection and singers of amazing grace and the battle done.

What finally saves Christianity every time from sloshing in easy piety is the fact that we are the night people as well as the morning people of God. "Morning come, and also the night." That is our announcement. It is the total news. It is telling everything that the watcher sees. "Behold, here come riders, horsemen in pairs!"

Why must the Church announce the night, the death toll today in Vietnam, the plight of black people in Southern Africa, the involvement of corporate systems in the destruction of human beings and environments, the welfare systems that perpetuate a culture of poverty, the obscene policies that create our inhumane prisons, the irrationality that creates scapegoats on every side, the bogus justice that lets killers go free and lovers of humanity languish in prison, the whole culture of crime and unsolved social problems that have made crime grow in rampant ways, hypocrisy and skullduggery in high places and low, and shameless apathy and mediocrity that makes our society seem sometimes like a wasteland of valueless living and frittered-away time.

"Let someone else announce all of that," say some. "The Church has lost too much minding the world's business." The fact is, my brothers and sisters, the Church is called by God to stand watch, to mind what is going on in the world, to care that much, to tell it like it is, and a church that does not take its place on the watchtower has lost its reason for being, its soul. We are to be, as the poet put it,

"acquainted with the night."
. . . at my post I am stationed whole nights."

And when a child of earth comes along and asks, "Watchman, what of the night," the whole answer and announcement from the people of God is, "Morning comes, and also the night."

The watchman's last word to the questioner is so deceptively simple that it is almost unnoticeable. Actually it is so deep and tender that I doubt that I can speak of it without a show of emotion. "If you will inquire," says the watchman, "inquire; come back again."

Do you see its beauty and its depth? The questioner from Seir has asked the ultimate question out of his suffering and anxiety. At the end, the watchman — calling from the parapet perhaps — affirms the question and the questioner. "Ask it again," he says. "Ask it again." "Come again," he says. "Come again."

There is an action here that borders on profound courtesy, but that is not all of it. Or encouragement, but neither is that fully it. There is affirmation and invitation, something touching and tender that says that a person with a question about the night has a kind of primacy so far as the watchman is concerned.

I believe it. All over this distressed land in the early years of the decade of the seventies are people of all sorts — across the full spectrum of types and kinds and dispositions — who are asking the deepest questions of meaning and purpose, hardly ever as plainly and as plaintively as the questioner before the watchman. "How long, O Lord, how long?" "Will the dawn of something new ever come?" "Will this darkness of violence, this terror, this absurdity, this age of assassinations and annihilations take us to our own graves as it has taken so many others, or is perchance the light coming up on an age of liberation and peace?"

The Word says those questions of the night matter, and those who help to stand watch over this precious earth and its people must keep hope and life alive by bidding the question of questions be asked:

"Watchman, what of the night?"

The watchman says, "Morning comes, and also the night."

"If you would inquire, inquire; come back again."

RESOLUTIONS REFERRED BY THE MEETING

THE REVEREND ALBERT C. RONANDER'S RESOLUTION ON WORSHIP

The Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, responding to the need for strengthening the local churches of the United Church of Christ and believing that revitalization of corporate worship is vital thereto, overtures the General Synod to provide sufficient funds and staff to enable the Commission on Worship to give leadership and develop resources for working directly with conferences and local churches in this primary task.

THE REVEREND KENNETH CLAUS' RESOLUTION ON COCU

WHEREAS the United Church of Christ, from its beginning, has been an ecumenical Church and

WHEREAS the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ has encouraged its members and parishes to be actively involved in ecumenical affairs and

WHEREAS the United Church of Christ has given strong, generous, and vocal support to the Consultation on Church Union, through its General Synod, Conferences and parishes,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ petition the Executive Council of the General Synod to review the stand it has recently taken in regards to the Consultation on Church Union.

THE REVEREND EDMUND NUTTING'S RESOLUTION ON NOMINATIONS

WHEREAS the history of Congregationalism has carried with it freedom and choice, and WHEREAS elections in Congregational process should in fact offer a choice, and WHEREAS within the limits of the Massachusetts Conference we can assume a bountiful supply of competent men and women to serve as Officers of the Conference, and WHEREAS even though some persons nominated may not be elected, there are ample places for good people to serve in other than elective capacities;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Massachusetts Conference make as one of its nomination and election procedures dual nominations for the Conference Officers, namely: Moderator, Vice Moderator and Recording Secretary. The implications of this resolution to be carried out by the committee on Church and Leadership.

MR. PAUL ROSS' RESOLUTION ON O.C.W.M. FINANCES AND PROGRAMS

WHEREAS representatives of the national agencies of the United Church of Christ are now visiting ministers and laymen in the conferences in the United States regarding programs requiring levels of financial support for three years in the near future representing between 130% and 200% of current financial support for our national church instrumentalities, and

WHEREAS financial support for national programs from local churches through Our Christian World Mission from the 42 conferences has declined from a level of $10.8 million in 1966 to $8.9 million in 1971, a decrease of 18% from 1966 levels,

It is moved that the Board of Directors, Massachusetts Conference, urgently request a consolidated, written report from the national instrumentalities of the United Church of Christ which documents for a recent fiscal year, hopefully 1971 or 1972, the activities of all of the instrumentalities of the United Church of Christ at the national level describing for each current program of the national church the . . .

. . . needs served by the program,
. . . program activities,
. . . sources and amounts of revenues,
. . . use of funds by expenditure category,
. . . relationship of the program to priorities adopted in 1971 by the General Synod,
. . . expected program duration, and
. . . program effects in terms relevant to the needs served.

The report should be presented in a way which shows and accounts for total cash flow during the period described. The report also should contain a consolidated balance sheet describing the status for all instrumentalities at the beginning and end of the period described. The report should describe recent trends in emphasis, given the several priorities, in both dollar and programmatic terms. We urge that the written report to all Massachusetts U.C.C. churches be provided in copies not fewer in number than one for every 100 members not later than March, 1973.

Motion drafted for the May 5-6, 1972 meeting of the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ
Motion authored by Paul F. Ross, member
First Parish, Lincoln, Massachusetts

PURPOSE OF PROPOSED ACTION

It is the purpose of the proposed action to make clear our wish that both the management disciplines employed in the planning and management of programs at our national church level and the communication between the national, conference, and local church levels be improved significantly. We hope that the things learned and the successes in preparing the report will lead to a well planned, well understood, increasingly useful, and well supported set of conference and national programs attractive to members and local churches.

Board of Directors
Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ

We have examined the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities resulting from cash transactions of Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ (a non-profit organization) as of December 31, 1971, and the related statements of revenue and expenditures and changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the assets and liabilities of Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ at December 31, 1971, arising from cash transactions, the revenue collected and expenditures by it and the changes in fund balances during the year then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

AUDITORS' REPORT ON SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

Massachusetts Conference of the
United Church of Christ

The basic financial statements of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ for the year ended December 31, 1971, and our report thereon, are presented in the preceding section of this report. Our examination was made primarily for the purpose of formulating an overall opinion on those financial statements. The supplemental statements presented hereinafter, although not considered necessary for a fair presentation of assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions, revenue collected and expenditures and changes in fund balances, are presented as supplementary information and have been subjected to the audit procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements. In our opinion, the supplemental statements are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY, BOSTON, INC. 1820

Chairman of Board of Directors — Richard M. Harter, Esq.
Clerk — Rev. Robert P. Noble
President — Rev. Clyde H. Miller, Jr.
Treasurer — Mr. Russell H. Palmer
Staff: Full time 15, part time (including summer program) 93

The City Missionary Society has been the social service arm of Congregational churches in Metropolitan Boston since 1816. It now has an important place in the life of the Metropolitan Boston Association, whose constitution refers to the Society as "a recognized instrumentality of the Metropolitan Boston Association." Committees of Metropolitan Boston Association and of City Missionary Society are working together on several programs.

CMS holds membership in the American Camping Association, Family Service Section of the Greater Boston Community Council, Massachusetts Conference on Human Rights, Massachusetts Conference on Social Welfare, National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials, National Association of Non-Profit Housing Organizers, Pregnancy Counselling Service, Religious Research Association, Citizens Housing and Planning Association, and Greater Boston Community Development.

The former Commission on Housing and Education of the Metropolitan Boston Association is now a program arm of CMS. The program in Housing has as its task working within the framework of the housing system at the metropolitan level in order to increase the delivery of housing to low and moderate income families. The program in Education has focused on assisting community groups that wish to improve public education or provide alternatives to it. Consequently, much of the program has been devoted to discovering resources that may be useful to such groups.

Mission Advance funds, now flowing through CMS as the mission arm of the Metropolitan Boston Association, will be budgeted by the CMS-MBA Projects Committee. The principal use of these funds will be in the area of Community Development. Work has already begun in Mattapan, Somerville, and Woburn.

The program of Community Development in Mattapan had begun in the belief that resources available to CMS can be harnessed to enable that community to become viable for its residents. Staff has begun to explore the possible resources that can be directed to the economic enhancement of the area. The program in Somerville had begun in the belief that the combined efforts of public and private groups can substantially effect systematic change, particularly in the area of public education. In Woburn, priority will be given to needs of the Spanish-speaking community.

Six social workers are assigned to various communities in the inner city, and they work closely with public and private social agencies. The Society's social workers are aided by volunteers who engage in numerous useful services of visitation, teaching, etc. A Voluntary Case-Aide Program has dedicated volunteers from Roxbury and from several suburban communities, assisting relocated multi-problem families.

The Society's summer camping programs provide meaningful activity for children of all ages and for adult members of low-income families. Camps Andover-Waldron on Lake Winnisquam, in Meredith, N. H. are open to children 9-16 years of age.

They provide opportunities for interracial and intercultural contacts in a Christian setting. Family Camps and weekend retreats for church groups are held under sponsorship of CMS at Farrington Memorial property in Lincoln, Mass.

CMS receives no income from United Funds. Principal support comes from United Church of Christ Churches in Metropolitan Boston, from interested individuals and trust funds, and from endowment. Much aid in relief comes from the Howard Benevolent Society. Many churches and Sunday schools regularly aid with collections of clothing, furniture, Christmas gifts, and special funds.

The Society's income in the fiscal year ending October 31, 1971 was $342,461 (this amount included legacies of $49,402). Churches in the Metropolitan Boston Association and other churches in Massachusetts contributed $49,988. The operating deficit in 1971 was $50,000.

City Missionary Society was incorporated in 1820. Its corporate members are elected at the annual meeting, held in November each year. Every supporting congregation is entitled to nominate a representative to serve a three year term on the corporation.

THE CONGREGATIONAL LIBRARY
OF THE AMERICAN CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION
(Proprietor of the Congregational House)
Room 207, 14 Beacon Street, Boston

The Congregational Library was founded in 1853 to gather and preserve books, pamphlets and manuscripts on Congregational history and to promote the general interests of Congregational churches. In addition to the historic collection on Congregationalism the library has important collections of Bibles, in a variety of languages and versions, hymnals, and histories of local churches and towns. New books, with the exception of fiction, are purchased every week in the fields of: preaching and pastoral work, philosophy and theology, Biblical commentary, church history, religious education, worship and devotion, missions and the ecumenical movement, church arts and architecture, denominations, sects, and world religions, social problems, and biography.

These resources, approximately 200,000 books and pamphlets, are available to ministers, lay preachers, church officers, church school teachers, students, and all interested in reading for enrichment of life. Books are mailed without charge to all parts of the United States. A letter or postcard giving author, title or the subject of books desired, will receive prompt attention. The Library is open for study and research Monday through Friday, 9-5. A copy of a leaflet, "The Congregational Library" and the Bulletin will be sent to those writing for further information.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday school membership, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference in 1887, are made to conform to those in the National Year Book;
2. The Associations of Churches, with the names of officers;
3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership in the Association, the residence and his "employment";
4. The Ministerial Record, containing lists of ordinations and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational and United Church of Christ churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. This is not a postal guide. It is a listing of the location of the church for the convenience of persons seeking to find the church. The first name in the list of churches is the name of the town or city in which the church is located; then follows the name of the church and directions for locating the church.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1972, Admissions and removals cover the year 1971. "Sunday School" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars January 1, 1972 or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools," and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Months and days in the dates of ordination of Congregational and United Church of Christ ministers may be found in the lists of the local associations which follow the tables.

B — Church is part of a Larger Parish. Name of Larger Parish will be found under the name of the Larger Parish in Conference Summary

Y — Pastor serves more than one church. (See list of yoked churches in Conference Summary)
CM — Campus Ministry
LO — Limited Ordination
NK — Pastor's denomination is not known
PT — Part time
☐ — Church made no report and statistics are from previous Year Book, except actual figures reported from Conference Records for Our Mission for Others
* — Schedule I. Congregational Christian Churches which have not voted or which have voted to abstain from voting at the time of submitting the Conference Report # — Schedule II. Congregational Christian Churches which have voted not to be part of the U.C.C. at the time of submitting the Conference Report

Amount of "Local Expenses" includes all salaries, operating expenses and repairs for church, Sunday school, choir and parish.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational or United Church of Christ churches within the federated churches. Figures pertaining to Church School enrollment, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

Note:

Pastoral changes between the time year book data was sent to the national office and the time of going to press for our Conference Year Book are not reflected in the following schedules, but are reflected in the association lists and the alphabetical lists.

MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL FUND

First Trust — a balanced fund
Second Trust — an income fund
Third Trust — an equity fund

The Massachusetts Congregational Fund was established in 1945 as a means of bringing professional investment management to bear on the handling of the capital funds of the Massachusetts Conference and churches and organizations affiliated with it. In nearly three decades the Fund has provided continuity and the steady application of sound investment principles to the assets put in its care.

The three trusts named in the heading operate as mutual funds with no loading and a minimum of expense. The First National Bank of Boston provides the custody of the assets, the collection and distribution of income and investment service. Each trust has a different objective as indicated by their names so that separately or in combination almost any objective may be achieved. The net assets of the three trusts now total nearly $13 million market value.

The officers and members of the Fund's Board composed of business and financial executives well known in Massachusetts, ask consideration of the churches for the investment of additional funds in one or more of the trusts. They are open for new subscriptions (and redemptions) four times each year, on January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1 upon prior application.

The performance of the Fund, whether judged by the past year's results, or over a long period of time, is such as to indicate sound and capable operation and to justify churches using the Fund's trusts with confidence as effective vehicles for investing their capital assets. For additional data on net assets and earnings of each trust, see pages 85, 86 and 87 of this Year Book.
